Message from Inspector Jo Walmsley

We are aware of recent reports of suspicious vehicles being seen in our rural parishes and the focus for my team and me remains on preventing and detecting rural crime, especially rural burglaries targeting farms and outbuildings. Dedicated Police patrols are being carried out in these areas with this in mind, and I would urge you all to report anything that you feel is suspicious or out of place – you are very much our eyes and ears. Information can be reported to us via our 101 number or you can contact us via our website, www.norfolk.police.uk \Report It. In the case of an emergency always dial 999. Crime prevention advice is also available on our website and officers can give free crime prevention advice to domestic or business premises – please contact your local Beat Manager or our Engagement Officer to arrange. Finally, I would remind you to remain vigilant to opportunist thieves and remember the #9pmRoutine of ensuring your vehicles and properties are secure before bed.

Message from your Engagement Officer, Pc Paula Gilluley

We often talk about how busy Police are kept and so this month I thought you may be interested in some facts and figures for what we did in August this year. A total of 2069 Reports were generated from 870 emergency 999 calls, 919 non-emergency calls on the 101 number and 280 on line reports. Officers attended 1186 of these incidents. There were 93 RTC reports and 72 domestic reports. Officers made 103 arrests and recorded 574 crimes. These figures refer to the Breckland Policing District only and are accurate as of 3rd September.
