

Dear Members,

We're very pleased to announce a fantastic offer from the wonderful Pentabus Theatre Company. Creative Arts East co-commissioned the show 'The Tale of Little Bevan' which was created with and by our very own village hall promoters and rural communities and toured with us in the Autumn last year!

We are very proud of this production and would have loved more of our groups and their audiences to have been able to see it - and NOW YOU CAN! So please spread with your networks via email and social media and see what a brilliant piece of theatre we all made together ☺

Where to watch...

This brilliant show will be made available from 2pm this Friday 17th April, and is free to watch from the comfort of your own home. Simply visit <https://pentabus.co.uk/live/tale-little-bevan-live-recording> or follow the link from Creative Arts East facebook page / or from our twitter account @CreativArtsEast.

About the show...

In a peaceful Norfolk village three people are seeking happiness. But as the harvest moon fills and the party begins, ancient forces are brought to life. While Tony and Mike get trapped in the tunnels below the village, Gill's plan for revenge turns sour. A darkly comic journey through 24 hours in the life of a village called Little Bevan, this new play by award-winning playwright, Robert Alan Evans promises live music, storytelling, and the spirit of a 10th century saint.

In addition...

Pentabus will also be hosting a Q & A with two artists on Instagram from 7pm – 8pm on Tuesday 21st April. Just follow our social media for further details.
