

In Recognition of Black History Month and Global Diversity Awareness Month

You are invited to a Candle- Light Vigil

- Date: Wednesday 12 October
- Where: The Forum, Norwich NR2 1BH
- Arrive: 4:30pm

Hot drinks will be available

Please bring with you a battery powered candle or use smartphone torch. The event will be outdoors so dress appropriately. For your own comfort you may wish to use a face mask

(the use of flammable wax candles is prohibited)

RSVP: mercy.kaggwa@nchc.nhs.uk by Friday 7 October

Programme:

Arrival from 4:30pm

4:45pm: Welcome

- by Mercy Kaggwa, Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Advisor at NCH&C
- Njoki Yaxley, Non Exec Director, NCH&C

5:00pm: Candle Light Vigil begins (2minute silence) – smartphone torch or battery powered candles only

5:02pm: Moses Tinuoye on Saxophone

5:10pm: Presentations:

- Norfolk and Norwich Black History Month by Michael Gyapong
- Changing the Narrative by Eka Ekaette, Co-Chair of NNUH Together Staff Network
- Stephen Collman, CEO, NCH&C

5:30pm: Poetry by Vandana

5:45pm: closing speeches

- By Marie-Lyse Numuhoza MBE, HealthWatch Norfolk

6pm: Close

